NGUM VANESSA CHE

Motivated junior software developer eager to contribute to IT projects and grow through hands-on experience

Education

National Senior Certificate (NSC) Nov 2024

Providence Academy – NSC (2024)
Diploma in Software Development / IT — In Progress, 2025–2027

Experience

- Applied data communication concepts to understand how information flows across networks.
- Built and styled websites through web development projects, applying design and coding fundamentals.
- Practiced programming fundamentals, focusing on structured problem-solving and logical thinking.

Contact

+27 734 335 386
22 Streatley Avenue, Auckland Park, Johannesburg
Chevanessa2674@gmail.com
GitHub: github.com/Vanessa02-hub (github.com in Bing)
LinkedIn: linkedin.com/in/vanessa-che-7532b7385 (linkedin.com in Bing)

Professional Strengths

- Strong problem-solving skills and analytical thinking
- Effective communication skills
- Teamwork and adaptability in group projects
- Time management and organization
- Quick learner, eager to grow in professional environment
- Time management and organization, balancing coursework, projects, and deadlines effectively.

- Learned Database Management Systems (DBMS), including data storage, queries, and relational models.
-

- Applied system analysis & design principles to evaluate requirements and create workflow models.
- Explored introductory AI concepts, gaining awareness of algorithms and applications.

- Critical thinking and analytical skills, applied in assignments and project evaluations.
- Able to grasp new technologies and tools with minimal supervision.

- Demonstrated teamwork and adaptability, contributing effectively to group projects and assignments.

Detail-oriented with a problem-solving mindset, eager to learn and grow in professional environments.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- GitHub portfolio showcasing academic and personal projects.
- Active on LinkedIn to build professional network.
- Detail-oriented and motivated to learn emerging technologies.